All About Living Joins Vertaview Group

Vertaview Group is proud to announce that All About Living Ltd officially joined the Group on 1 July 2025.

All About Living is a specialist provider of NDIS and aged care services, supporting communities across Brisbane, the Gold Coast, and the Sunshine Coast.

This strategic merger marks a significant milestone in our commitment to delivering high-quality human services across the disability, mental health, and aged care sectors. United by a shared purpose, Vertaview Group and All About Living will work together to enhance the lives of the people we support.

All About Living CEO, Leonie Fowke said that joining Vertaview Group allows them to strengthen their services and reach more people in need.

“All About Living is excited about the opportunities this merger brings our clients, staff, and the broader sector,” said Ms Fowke.

Damian Bell, Group CEO of Vertaview Group said the integration of All About Living into Vertaview Group strengthens our collective capability to deliver high-quality, person-centred services across Queensland.

“This strategic alignment supports our long-term objectives and reinforces our commitment to operational excellence and sector leadership,” said Mr Bell.

“I’m pleased to extend a warm welcome to our new colleagues from All About Living and look forward to the opportunities this partnership will bring.”

Vertaview Group leads and supports organisations to create lasting positive impact that shapes communities and improves people’s quality of life.
